

David A. Adler Comes To Riley

On October 19, 2009, Riley School will be visited by the notable children's author, David A. Adler. When he speaks to our students he will explain how a book is created. He will share the process from initial ideas through the research, writing, rewriting, editing, galleys, illustration and printing steps.

The best preparation for his visit is to have our students read from the many different books and genres he has written. Visiting the public library over the summer months can be a perfect opportunity to prepare for the visit.

To add to the excitement of the visit, there will be a poster and essay contest. The winner from each grade will have lunch with David Adler!!! The instructions for the contest are on the Riley website. Good luck to all and don't forget everyone is a winner because we all get to meet this incredible author.

Books for autographing will be available for purchase at Riley School after the summer break.
