

BE A DAVID A. ADLER SCHOLAR
HAVE LUNCH WITH DAVID A. ADLER!
HOW????

Be the winner of the poster or essay contest for your grade.

All students in grades one through five are invited to participate.

- Create a poster based on one of David A. Adler's books.
- It must be 22x28.
- Be creative and colorful.
- Make sure your words are spelled correctly and that you print neatly.
- You may type your words on the computer and then paste them on to your poster.
- Make sure everything is big (words and pictures).
- Use as much space as you can on the poster without making it look too busy.
- Make sure your entire name and room number is on the back of the poster.
- Bring all posters to the LMC on October 1, 2009.

OR

All students in grades three through five are invited to participate.

- Write an essay about why you want to have lunch with David A. Adler.
- You must type the essay and it must be double spaced.
- It must be 3 paragraphs or more but have no more than 200 words.
- An attractive cover is important.
- Make sure your entire name and room number is on the top of the essay.
- Bring your essay to the LMC by October 1, 2009.

No entries will be accepted after October 1, 2009

Winners will be announced on October 13, 2009. If you have any questions contact Mrs. Diamond, Library Media Specialist. Scholar activity sponsored by the Riley Reading Committee.
